UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

FOR THE CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

JONATHAN TODD SCHWARTZ,

Defendant.

CR NO. 17CR00022

I N F O R M A T I O N

[18 U.S.C. § 1343: Wire Fraud; 26 U.S.C. § 7206(1): Subscribing to a False Federal Tax Return]

The United States Attorney charges:

COUNT ONE

[18 U.S.C. § 1343]

A. INTRODUCTORY ALLEGATIONS

1. At all times relevant to this Information:

a. Defendant JONATHAN TODD SCHWARTZ ("defendant SCHWARTZ") resided in Agoura Hills, within the Central District of California.

b. Defendant SCHWARTZ was a member of GSO Business Management, LLC ("GSO"), a business management firm based in Sherman Oaks, California. GSO provided financial guidance, including managing bank accounts, providing accounts payable services on clients' behalf, and preparing short term and long term budgets.

MAN

1 B. THE SCHEME TO DEFRAUD

2 2. Beginning at least as early as in or about March 2009 and
3 continuing to at least May 2016, in Los Angeles County, within the 4 Central District of California, and elsewhere, defendant SCHWARTZ,
5 knowingly and with the intent to defraud, devised, participated in,
6 and executed a scheme to defraud GSO and clients of GSO, including 7 Clients Numbers 1-5, as to material matters, and to obtain money and 8 property from GSO and clients of GSO by means of material false and 9 fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, and the 10 concealment of material facts.

11 3. The fraudulent scheme operated, in substance, as follows:

12 a. Defendant SCHWARTZ would represent to GSO's clients
13 that he would only access their bank accounts with their approval and 14 for purposes established by the clients, for instance to pay the 15 clients' bills or to obtain spending money for the clients to use.

16 b. Without the knowledge, consent, or approval of the 17 clients, defendant SCHWARTZ would submit requests for cash to the 18 bank at which the clients' accounts were maintained. Defendant
19 SCHWARTZ would sometimes instruct the bank to deliver the cash to him
20 at GSO; sometimes defendant SCHWARTZ would inform the bank that he 21 would pick up the cash at the bank.

22 c. Defendant SCHWARTZ would falsify and cause to be
23 falsified the account records provided to clients in order to conceal
24 the unauthorized takings. For instance, defendant SCHWARTZ would 25 instruct his assistants to "remove cash line item" from the monthly
26 account statements provided to one client; falsely code the 27 unauthorized cash withdrawals as "sundry/personal expenses" on the 28 accounting records for that client; and falsely code unauthorized

1 cash withdrawals as home renovations on the accounting records GSO
2 maintained for another client who, at the time, was rebuilding his 3 house.

4 d. In some instances, defendant SCHWARTZ would forge the 5 signature of the client on cash receipts, thereby creating the false
6 and fraudulent pretense and representation that the client had 7 received the proceeds of the unauthorized withdrawal.

8 e. When confronted about the missing cash, defendant
9 SCHWARTZ would falsely tell the clients and their representatives
10 that the missing cash had been invested in accordance with the 11 clients' directions. For instance, defendant SCHWARTZ falsely stated 12 that the missing money belonging to one client had been invested in 13 illegal marijuana businesses pursuant to that client's instructions.

14 f. Defendant SCHWARTZ would conceal from the clients and 15 GSO that he had taken the cash he obtained from the clients' accounts
16 and used it to pay for his own expenses.

17 4. As a result of the scheme described above, defendant
18 SCHWARTZ fraudulently obtained $1,009,000 from Client Number 1;
19 approximately $4.8 million from Client Number 2; $737,500 from Client
20 Number 3; $122,500 from Client Number 4; and $100,000 from Client
Number 5.

22 B. THE USE OF THE WIRES

23 5. On or about December 11, 2013, within the Central District
24 of California, and elsewhere, for the purpose of executing the above-
25 described scheme to defraud, defendant SCHWARTZ transmitted, caused
26 the transmission, and aided and abetted the transmission of an e-mail
27 sent from defendant SCHWARTZ's GSO e-mail account in California to 28 City National Bank, in California, via a Network Solutions, LLC,

1 server located in Jacksonville, Florida. The e-mail approved an
2 attached "Request For Cash/Cashier's Check/Foreign Currency" for 3 $97,500 in cash to be withdrawn from the account of Client Number 2,
4 which request was submitted by defendant SCHWARTZ and stated that
5 defendant SCHWARTZ would pick up the cash at the Beverly Hills Branch
6 of the bank.

1 COUNT TWO

2 [26 U.S.C. § 7206(1)]

3 6. On or about October 15, 2013, in Los Angeles County, within
4 the Central District of California, and elsewhere, defendant JONATHAN
5 TODD SCHWARTZ ("defendant SCHWARTZ"), a resident of Agoura Hills,
6 California, willfully made and subscribed to a materially false
7 United States Individual Income Tax Return, Form 1040, for calendar
8 year 2012, which was verified by a written declaration that it was 9 made under the penalties of perjury, and which was filed with the 10 Internal Revenue Service, which return defendant SCHWARTZ did not
11 believe to be true as to every material matter, in that, on such Form
12 1040, defendant SCHWARTZ reported, on line 22, that he had total
13 income in the amount of $626,228, when, as defendant SCHWARTZ then 14 well knew and believed, his total income for that year was 15 substantially higher than the amount he reported.
